PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the year 1945 has produced abundant prosperity and progress throughout the state of South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, this year has witnessed the victorious conclusion of the global war in which the people of South Dakota participated with so much loyalty, efficiency, and worthy sacrifice in all theaters of war and on the civilian production front as well, which gives us an additional reason for gratitude and thanksgiving:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M. Q. Sharpe, the Governor of the state of South Dakota, pursuant to the provisions of SDC 65.0404, do hereby proclaim Thursday, the 22nd day of November, 1945, as a day of proper thanksgiving and as a legal holiday throughout South Dakota, and further

That with special recognition of the service and sacrifices of our people in the great war and with special recollection of those who have loyally made the supreme sacrifice and so that they may be with us in spirit throughout that day, I suggest that the flag of our country be displayed in the usual public places and wherever appropriate during Thanksgiving Day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota to be affixed, this 2nd day of November, 1945.

(Great Seal)

M Q Sharpe
Governor
